

The Far-Out Show (Paperback)

By Thomas P Hanna

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Nerber is a contestant on the the Far-Out Show, the first intergalactic reality TV show of his planet Ormelex. He is the first of his kind to secretly visit Earth since he is the only one of the several who traveled here for the purpose to safely reach Earth s surface (although he doesn t know that and the producers want to keep him from learning it). He sets off to carry out a series of prescribed show challenges involving interactions with whatever intelligent life forms he can find. That ends up including the unintended one of surviving being hunted by fear-crazed human vigilantes. Back on Ormelex, the new show s instant popularity causes unexpected problems for the show producers and the politicians who back them since the unruly population seem likely to riot when more episodes are slow to be aired. The on-site producers busy editing together the show episodes on board a spaceship near earth s moon scheme to come out ahead by playing one group at home against the other. They plot the best course to make themselves rich, famous,...
