By Gerald Anderson

North Star Press of St. Cloud, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Everybody wants Homer Grimstead s land. Unfortunately, someone was willing to kill for it. The Otter Tail Bird Watching and Conservation Society, or the O.T.B.W.A.C.S., wants to protect and watch birds on Homer s land. The bird in question is the T. phasianellus campestris, aka. the prairie chicken. Fergus Falls Fin and Feather Club, or the F.F.F.F., however, has a different plan in mind. They want to -acquire the land with the intent to hunt the prairie chickens. To the Western Minnesota Farmers Energy Coopera-tive, however, that same piece of real estate is a perfect combination of location and resources for a state-of-the-art, $80,000,000 ethanol plant. When hunting, bird watching, and business collide, somebody is bound to get hurt . . . and someone does. A dead body is found underneath the giant prairie chicken in Rothsay. Now that complicates things.
