Candlewick on Brilliance Audio, 2015. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. Clem, a working-class boy living in government-assisted housing, and Frankie, the daughter of a wealthy landowner, must keep their relationship secret. If it s discovered, their world will be blown apart. But unknown to them, President John F. Kennedy and the Russian leader, Nikita Khrushchev, are shaping up to do just that-- blow the world apart--as the two leaders fight over a small island in the Caribbean Sea, leading up to the events that will later be known as the Cuban Missile Crisis. For Frankie and Clem, time, like everything else, is against them. In his most brilliant and ambitious novel yet, Mal Peet portrays the shattering power of love and the ricocheting effect of war through generations. Witty, super-smart, heartbreakingly generous, it s so good, you almost want to keep it a secret. -Patrick Ness, author of the award-winning Chaos Walking series Life: An Exploded Diagram is Mal Peet s finest work to date, by turns hysterically funny, sad, poignant, bitter, and rude, but always with that unfakeable sense of deep truth. -Anthony McGowan, author of The Knife That Killed Me A new novel by Mal Peet is always something to be eagerly anticipated: finely drawn characters, ambitious storytelling, a broad historical canvas, piercing social critique--and now, much more than in previous novels, a delightfully irreverent streak of humor. -Jonathan Hunt, blogger for School Library Journal s Heavy Medal blog An astonishingly engaging, wonderful, un-put-downable book. His gorgeous writing makes one reread sentences over and over again for the pure joy of experiencing the language. -Carol Stoltz, Porter Square Books, Cambridge, MA.
