

Thirty-Sixth Annual Report of the Trustees of the Public Library, 1888 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Boston Public Library

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Thirty-Sixth Annual Report of the Trustees of the Public Library, 1888 The total issues from all the libraries for the year were 934, 593, against volumes in 1886. This diminution is partly owing to the temporary closing of the active South Boston and East Boston branches for repairs of the build inos, and to a falling off in Jamaica Plain and Dorchester, while the South and North End branches showed a gratifying increase. Since the opening of these various libraries, now belonging to the City of Boston, or under its charge, there have been distributed to readers since 1853, volumes, of which more than one-third were issued from the Lower Hall Library in Boylston street. The use of the reading-rooms for periodicals shows a marked improvement. The 933 magazines and literary weeklies found readers a gain of over from the previous year. Of this aggregate numbers were delivered from the desk of the hall in the Central Library devoted to this purpose. The wear and tear of the library books is specially felt in the collect-ions dedicated to popular use. In...
