Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Conversations - An overview of God s plan for Mankind Written as a narrative, but totally based on scripture, events as seen through the eyes of another, are brought together as a comprehensive chronicle of mankind s past, present and future. So what if we could travel through history and talk with the characters we have come to know in the Bible? How would the tapestry of their lives affect our final understanding of the complete plan of God? Now many people have read this novel and were inspired. Others may find that the story does not fit with their current doctrine. In both cases, the reader should review all books in this series to gain a full understanding [See Authors Page for complete list]. For this novel is designed to get the reader to ask questions regarding their faith for it presents details which are often ignored by many. Do not sweep your questions under the rug of ignorance. In John s revelation he saw the great prostitute (idolatress). She has joined with the rulers of the earth in prostitution (idolatry) and those who live on the earth have been made drunk by the wine of her idolatry [they are unaware they are also performing acts of idolatry]. God calls his people to come out of her, to not share in her sins and by such receive her plagues. Now some would say that we are in the latter days. That would imply that this prostitute would be the church of our time and that there is something fundamentally wrong with its doctrine. But take note, for her title is also the mother of harlots. That means she has many daughter...
