AFTHER THE SEARCH OF LOVE: A LESSON OF LIFE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A magical story about love, suffering and hope. Memories and destination. Fears and struggles. Amazing discoveries. This is the story of Rito Rehacer, -a child of six years. He begins to experience the love of all creation as any child born. He was the last of 5 siblings. The village where he lived was ten minutes from the city; it was a place full of beautiful flowers, and extraordinary landscapes. The Rehacer s gifts were many; the family, to live his dreams; friends, to share his experiences; people, to learn from them; plants and animals to enjoy the scenery; God s love, to live in freedom, and know that oneself is a gift for others. When he was ten years old, he is realizing that his life was having a sentimental and emotional transformation, because he no longer watching life as ever. It was becoming a different child. He began to worry about situations that were still difficult to understand. He did not understand where came the conflicts of people who often had an impact on the social environment of a certain place. But the worst was just beginning to Rehacer. He was going into a painful process; even he did not know how much it would last. The storm was felt in his life as he was falling apart inside, without finding a solution. But a situation into his environment changes everything, doing that he has an internal struggle to help him withstand everything that is presented in life and to have a loving smile on his face again.
