

Flames of Truth Beyond the Darkness of Wall Street West

By Dr. Cristina Guarneri

Infinity Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 276 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. There was a resiliency that strengthened the people to look beyond the wars and tragedies that once impacted a nation. For those who were left behind, it was a roadmap into their futures and the understood importance of one mans decision to leave his life behind so to fight for someone elses life instead. It was less than a year since returning home from Iraq before he caught the attention of fellow Marine Corps veteran and the citys first black mayor. It was persuasion that gripped him. Having no interest in politics, he fell hard to his curiosity and accepted a once in a lifetime invitation that would ultimately introduce him to his future. Holding to the thinking that in order to win you must lose first, he accepted the challenges that were waiting for him. Delivering too little to too few, but more tragically, shamefully, existed the failure to properly care for a city and its people. It would take more than an election to restore the people. It would take charity and integrity. With time that growth would only collapse for the city skyline, for the...
