Gilbo Shed, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Justin Lifflander dreams of becoming an intelligence officer and joining the Cold War fight against the Russians. Following internships at the State Department and the FBI, he lands a job at the US Embassy in Moscow. But Lifflander s story turns out to be less The Spy Who Loved Me and more Ferris Bueller s Day Off. He sets off for provincial Russia to live outside the gate of a nuclear missile factory and work as an inspector-janitor-chef on the US monitoring team. There he discovers Russians are just as friendly-and suspicious-as their American counterparts. What sinister significance could the Americans pink lawn flamingos have? The local KGB wants to know. The Americans are managed by young female escorts tasked by the KGB to watch for signs of espionage. They begin to manipulate Lifflander s favorite-a pretty girl named Sofia. Against the rules and reason, Justin and Sofia become emotionally involved. Both a romantic comedy of errors and a narrative glimpse into the golden age of US-USSR relations during perestroika, Lifflander s memoir is revealed through deeply personal experience, humor, and heartache. It reminds us our enemies are never as unknowable as we think or as easy to fathom as we d like. Editorial Reviews: A real-life Cold War tale filled with nostalgia, exuberance and satirical wit. - Kirkus Reviews A hilarious book! - Jackie Lupo, The Rivertowns Enterprise He cites the need to address the current crisis of misunderstanding between the United States and Russia, and urges us to challenge everything we think we know in that effort. - The Foreign Service Journal A memoir of a time and place which was rich in comedy and Justin had a keen...
