BEWARE THE JABBERWOCK (PAPERBACK)

Baker s Plays, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Fantasy, Children s TheatreCharacters: 1male, 3female, 12male/female - variable casting possibleOne setEmma and Lucy are lost in Tulgey Wood, a mysterious forest full of weird and wonderful creatures. Trying to find their way home, they encounter boisterous Toves and anxious Raths, receive a warning from the refined and snobbish Borogroves about the deadly Jubjub Bird, and are stalked by the frumious Bandersnatch. Joined by intrepid but hapless knight Percy, they come face to face with the awesome Jabberwock - and then Lucy is bandersnatched! Eventually the Jabberwocks terrible secret is revealed, and the children find out what frumious really means.Suggested by the poem Jabberwocky, the play is set in the fantasy world of Lewis Carroll s Alice stories. Shortlisted in Scottish and Welsh playwriting competitions, one judge commented it has the same delightfully confusing dialogue of Carroll s work and brings back fond memories of reading these stories as a child. Wonderfully cryptic nonsensical moments as well as moments of philosophical clarity made me smile and wonder. This play will go down a treat with children and adults alike. An ideal play for young people to perform, or for adults to perform to a young audience. Full of nonsensical language, confusion and bewilderment the play is a delight from start to finish.many authors of family plays will put in something for the adults alongside the action that is primarily aimed at children. Ron Nicol has created a piece that will have adults and children laughing along to the same thing, and family entertainment doesn t get much better than that. - Amateur Stage.
