Between keeping the house clean, doing the laundry, making meals and shuttling the family around to football practice or ballet lessons, mums have got their work cut out for them! But what about the fun part? What about the things that will make a child?s eyes glitter with anticipation and excitement? And where can a mum learn these invaluable tricks? 150 Ways to Become Supermum is a mother?s one-stop guide for over 150 skills and tricks for having fun and learning. The book takes a humorous, yet highly practical approach to what people need to do in order to spend a full day with a child (let alone three of them). It is illustrated with line drawings and features skills such as: * Making dresses for Barbie out of pillowcases* Telling a great story starring the kid(s) in the house* Flying a kite* Weaving a French-braid and cornrows* Doing super-cool karate moves* Drawing five important cartoon characters. : About the Author: Susan Dazzo was previously the art director of Parenting magazine. She left that job to be at home with her three young children, but continues to contribute to the magazine. Susan lives in New Jersey, New York. Size: 17.4 x 12.6 x 2 cm. 192 pages.
